Diller-Quaile Performance Space

Paula Robison's elegant artistry and passionate intellect have inspired the musical world. Born to a family of writers, actors, dancers and musicians, her groundbreaking performances have made her a role model for young flutists everywhere. Ms. Robison has commissioned over thirty works for flute. Her affinity for Brazilian music consistently adds another dimension to her programming of solo and chamber music repertoire. Ms. Robison is also renowned for her master classes, original transcriptions and books on the art of flute playing. She has collaborated with I Soloisti Veneti, the Budapest Strings, New York's Mostly Mozart, Jazz at Lincoln Center and the Marlboro and Santa Fe Music Festivals. Regular worldwide recital appearances include an annual sold-out Vivaldi series at New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PARTICIPANT DUOS

Advanced Flute and Guitar Duos (high school through professional) are encouraged to apply. Applicants are not required to be enrolled at The Diller-Quaile School of Music. Please submit the following:

1. Application form.
2. A letter of recommendation (current / former teacher, or an established musician in the field).

The Participant Application deadline is February 1, 2012. Duos chosen to perform in the March 2nd Master Class will be notified three weeks in advance. At that time, Ms. Robison will also indicate repertoire to be performed.

AUDITOR APPLICANTS

Auditors of all levels are welcome to attend the class. While there is no deadline for Auditor Applicants, due to space limitations it is strongly encouraged to register in advance.
